

Introduction:

Jennifer Sprague is a mother of two and knows how difficult it is to find the support and resources needed to prepare for baby and take care of baby after baby arrives. Jennifer assists parents everywhere in providing tools, resources and products for parents who want to raise their children in the Natural Parenting lifestyle. She created the Ebook, Babies Galore, for the sole purpose of aiding parents around the globe to quickly locate almost any item they could possibly need for raising a healthy and happy child. She has made it her personal goal to ensure that Babies Galore is packed with lots of great information on web sites all over the world. That are in business to help busy parents like you. With this book, the need for searching the phone book or even searching the Internet for places to shop for your parenting needs is over. The book offers everything from natural parenting products to child safety, and offers you the BEST places to shop on the Internet. No two babies are the same; so many parents want their baby products to be practical yet unique. It's a nice feeling to use a product that is unique and isn't so readily available to everyone. Babies Galore eliminates the need to shop at all those boring ordinary stores like Toy 'R Us. With Babies Galore comes options; you can select unique and practical items that are only available on the Internet. Inside Babies Galore you will find essential products for just about every parenting need. Babies Galore will be updated every 3 months to ensure that parents are provided with updated business links so rest assured you will always be able to find the items you need, quickly and effectively.

Advertise your business

Babies Galore is a free ebook designed to assist parents in obtaining all the information and products they need to raise healthy, happy children. Due to the ever so changing Internet and the rise and fall of businesses, Babies Galore will be updated every 3 months to ensure that readers are getting valid business information and links for their shopping needs. If you own a business and would like to advertise your business in Babies Galore or if you have questions, simply email Jenn @ jenn@all-natural-mommies.com

The cost for listing your business is $3.00, $5.00 if you would like a button link to your site. The following information is required to advertise your business:

Email address:
Website Url (up to two):
Description:
Button Address (if applicable):

Please note that once the book is updated you will receive the URL of the PDF file, along with a "small" graphic that you're welcome to use if you would like to offer the book to your customers or on your web site.

Advantages –

By it's very nature Babies Galore is a FREE resource for parents all over the world, as such your web site will be seen by many parents.

At this time (March 2007) we have at least 150 web sites that will be promoting Babies Galore, either on their web site, on their blog or within their newsletter! (This number is growing everyday, because everyone loves a free resource that's free to offer!)

Several of the mom's that have expressed interest in offering Babies Galore, have also contacted businesses and doctors offices local to them, including myself here in the nations capitol, to provide a printed version to them. Thus increasing your exposure!

In addition, your web site will STAY within our listings until you close your web site. We will be deleting "dead" links but as long as your web site is up, your listing will be included in each updated version.
